CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

A r t i c l e 1 The Rules of Procedure for the board of directors (the “Board”) of China International Marine Containers (Group) Co., Ltd. (the “Company”) (the “Rules of Procedure”) are formulated in accordance with the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China (the “C o m p a n y L a w”), Guidelines for Establishing Independent Directors System in Listed Companies (the “I n d e p e n d e n t D i r e c t o r s G u i d e l i n e s”), Governance Standards of Listed Companies (the “G o v e r n a n c e S t a n d a r d s”), Articles of Association of China International Marine Containers (Group) Co., Ltd. (the “A s s o c i a t i o n A s s a n a t i o n”) and other relevant laws, administrative regulations and normative documents to regulate the discussion procedures of the Board and to

- (2) no more than five years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for penalty on a crime of corruption, bribery, encroachment of property, embezzlement or disrupting socialist economic order, or no more than five years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for deprivation of political rights due to committing a crime;
- (3) no more than three years have lapsed since conclusion of liquidation owing to the bankruptcy of a company or enterprise where the person served as a director or factory manager or president and was personally liable for the bankruptcy;
- (4) no more than three years have lapsed since the date of cancellation of the business license and winding-up of a company or enterprise on account of illegal business operations where the person served as the legal representative and was personally liable;
- (5) a relatively large amount of personal debt is overdue but remains unpaid;
- (6) the person is under investigation by the judicial authorities after a claim has been brought for breaking criminal law, pending conclusion of the case;
- (7) the person is not eligible for enterprise leadership under the laws and administrative regulations;
- (8) the person is not a natural person;
- (9) no more than five years have lapsed since the person was found guilty of violating relevant securities regulations and involved in fraud or dishonesty as adjudged by relevant regulatory authorities;
- (10) the person is currently being prohibited from participating in securities market by the China Securities Regulatory Commission and such barring period has not elapsed;
- (11) no more than two years have lapsed since the Shanghai Stock Exchange or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange has declared the person to be inappropriate; and
- (12) other circumstances specified by laws, administrative regulations or rules.

For any election and appointment of a director in contravention of the provisions prescribed by this Article, such election, appointment or employment shall be void and null. Where a director falls into any of the aforesaid circumstances in his/her term of office, the director shall be removed from office.

A 7 New director shall, within one month after being appointed at the general meeting, sign a “directors’ declaration and undertaking” and submit it to the Board and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange for filing.

A 8 Directors shall be elected or replaced by the general meeting. The term of office of directors is three years, renewable upon re-election at its expiry. A director may not be removed from office by the shareholders’ general meeting without any reason before his/her term of office expires. The general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiry of his/her term of office (but without prejudice to such director’s right to claim damages under any contract), subject to full compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

Written notice of the intention to nominate candidates for directors and their consent to accept the nomination shall be lodged with the Company after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting and no later than seven days before the holding of the general meeting. The minimum notice period of such written notice is seven days.

A 9 The term of office of directors commences from the date of appointment up to the expiry of the current term of office of the Board. In the event that the term of a director falls upon expiry whereas the new member of the Board is not re-elected in time, the existing director shall continue to perform his/her duties in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the provisions of the Articles of Association until the re-elected director assumes office.

A 10 The Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be the directors of the Company and shall be elected and removed by a simple majority of votes (more than five directors) of all directors.

S 2 D s

A 11 Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall fulfill obligations to the Company as follows:

- (1) not to abuse his/her position to accept bribes or other illegal income or misappropriate the properties of the Company;
- (2) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company;
- (3) not to set up accounts in his/her own name or in the name of any other person for the purpose of depositing any of the assets or funds of the Company;
- (4)

Other than the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a director shall become effective upon submission of his/her resignation report to the Board.

A 18 Upon a director's resignation becoming effective or at the expiry of his/her term of office, the director shall complete all handover procedures with the Board, and his/her fiduciary obligations to the Company and the shareholders shall not necessarily cease after the termination of tenure and shall remain effective within one year after the termination of tenure.

A 19

A 27 Independent directors shall be independent. The following persons shall not act as independent directors:

- (1) the employees of the Company or its subsidiaries, and their lineal relatives and major social connections (lineal relatives refer to spouses, parents and children, and the major social connections refer to brothers and sisters, parents-in-law, daughters-in-law, sons-in-law, spouses of brothers and sisters, and brothers and sisters of spouses);
- (2) the natural person shareholders directly or indirectly holding more than 1% of issued shares of the Company or any of the ten largest shareholders of the Company and their lineal relatives;
- (3) persons who hold a position in the shareholders directly or indirectly holding more than 5% of issued shares of the Company or any of the five largest shareholders of the Company and their lineal relatives;
- (4) persons who, at any time during the immediately preceding period of one year, have fallen into any of the three categories listed above;
- (5) persons providing financial, legal and consultation services to the Company or its subsidiaries;
- (6) other persons specified by the Articles of Association; and
- (7) other persons as prescribed by the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

A 28 The Board, the Supervisory Committee, or shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of issued shares of the Company are entitled to nominate independent directors to be elected at the general meetings.

A 29 Nominator(s) of independent directors shall obtain the consent of the nominee prior to any nomination. The nominator shall acquire all the personal particulars of his/her nominee as to their profession, education, job position, spouse, and other relevant information.

A 31 When holding a shareholders' general meeting for the election of independent

A 35 In addition to the powers of directors conferred by laws and administrative regulations, the Company shall grant the following special powers to the independent directors:

- (1) Substantial connected transactions (representing the connected transactions proposed to be entered into between the Company and a connected person with a total amount exceeding RMB3,000,000 or 5% of the Company's latest audited net assets value) shall be approved by independent directors before submission to the Board for discussion;

Before making a judgment, independent directors may appoint an intermediary to issue the report of independent financial adviser as the basis for their judgment.

- (2) to propose to the Board for the appointment or removal of accounting firms;
- (3) to propose to the Board to convene extraordinary general meetings;
- (4) to propose to convene the Board meetings;
- (5) to engage independently external auditors and advisers;
- (6) to publicly obtain the rights to vote from the shareholders prior to the general meetings.

To exercise the above-mentioned powers, the independent director(s) shall obtain the consent of more than half of all the independent directors.

Where any such proposal is not adopted or any such power cannot be exercised normally, the Company shall disclose the relevant information.

A 36 Upon unanimous consent of all the independent directors, independent directors may appoint external auditing and consulting agencies independently to provide auditing or consulting services on specific matters of the Company at the expense of the Company.

A 37 The Company shall provide all the necessary conditions to the independent directors:

- (1) The Company shall ensure that independent directors are entitled to the same right to information as other directors. For the matters required to be decided by the Board, the Company shall advise the independent directors in advance within stipulated time and provide them with adequate information. If the independent directors think that the said information is insufficient, the independent directors are entitled to request supplemental information. Where two or more independent directors are of the view that the information is insufficient or the demonstrations are not specific, they may jointly propose in writing to the Board to postpone the meeting of the Board or the discussion of the matter in question, and the Board is obliged to accept such proposal. The information provided by the Company to the independent directors shall be kept by the Company and the independent directors for a period of no less than five years;
- (2) The Company shall provide the independent directors with the necessary working

- (3) When the independent directors are performing their duties, employees of the Company shall cooperate with them practically and shall not refuse, obstruct, or conceal or interfere with the exercise of their powers independently;
- (4) Expenses regarding engaging intermediaries by the independent directors or other expenses necessary for exercise of their powers shall be borne by the Company;
- (5) The Company shall pay the independent directors subsidies of appropriate sums. The standards of the said subsidies shall be proposed by the Board and approved by the general meeting and shall be disclosed in the annual report of the Company. Apart from the above-mentioned subsidies, the independent directors shall not acquire other additional and undisclosed interests from the Company and its substantial shareholders or institutions and officers of common interests with the Company;
- (6) The Company shall establish the necessary insurance mechanism for independent directors to minimize risks possibly incurred by normal performance of the duties of the independent directors.

A 38 Independent directors shall convene a meeting of the independent directors at least once each year to exchange working experiences, summarize experiences and lessons and probe into working ideas.

A 39 In case an independent director fails to personally attend the Board meetings three times consecutively, the Board shall recommend the shareholders' general meeting to remove such independent director.

A 40 Save as stated above and the provisions of Article 6 of the Rules of Procedure and the Articles of Association which provide for the conditions when an independent director shall not be an independent director, an independent director shall not be removed before the expiry of his/her term. In the case of any early removal, the Company shall make a special disclosure thereof. Any removed independent director who thinks that the Company has not any proper reason to remove him/her may make public statement.

A 41 Any independent director may resign before the expiry of his/her term. A resigning independent director shall deliver his/her written notice of resignation to the Board, and shall make a statement on any conditions related to his/her resignation or conditions which he/she considers the shareholders and creditors of the Company shall be brought to attention.

If the proportion of independent directors of the Board of the Company falls below the minimum statutory requirement as provided in relevant regulations as a result of the resignation of independent director, the resignation report of such independent director shall only be effective upon his/her vacancy is filled by the newly appointed independent director.

A 42 Shareholders individually or jointly hold more than 1% of shares of the Company may challenge the independent director or propose removal against the said independent director in the belief that the said independent director has no qualification or competency to exercise his/her duties or fail to perform his/her duties independently or fail to safeguard the legal interests of the Company and the middle and small investors therein. The independent director questioned shall responsibly make explanation and disclosure about the inquiry. The Board of the Company shall, upon receipt of the relevant inquiry or proposed removal, responsibly hold a special meeting for discussion, and disclose the results thereof.

A 63 Save for external guarantees specified in Article 64 of the Articles of Association which shall be considered and approved by the general meeting of the Company, all other guarantees shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting of the Board and shall require the consent of more than two-thirds of all independent directors of the Company.

CHAPTER I MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

S I C a N a M s B a

A 64 Board meetings shall be held on a regular basis. The Board shall at least hold four regular meetings each year. Board meetings shall be convened by the Chairman and written notice of the meeting shall be served on all directors and supervisors fourteen days before the date of the meeting.

A 65 An ad hoc meeting of the Board shall be convened and presided over by the Chairman within ten (10) days upon his receipt of a request for meeting under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) if deemed necessary by the Chairman;
- (2) if proposed by shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights;
- (3) if jointly proposed by more than three directors;
- (4) if proposed by the Supervisory Committee;
- (5) if proposed by the president;
- (6) if jointly proposed by more than half of the independent directors.

A 66 The form of notice of convening an extraordinary meeting of the Board shall be as follows: written notice of the meeting shall be served on all directors and supervisors five days before the date of the extraordinary meeting of the Board.

A 67 A notice of Board meeting shall set out the following information:

- (1) date and venue of the meeting;
- (2) duration of the meeting;
- (3) reasons to convene such meeting and business to be discussed;
- (4) date of the notice.

A 68 The notice of board meeting and the relevant documents shall be prepared by the secretary to the Board. These documents shall be delivered to all directors before the meeting. The Directors shall consider the documents to the Board and fully consider them to give opinions. Where two or more independent directors consider that the information provided is insufficient or the proof is not enough, they may jointly write to the Board to postpone to convene the Board meeting or postpone the discussion of the issues, the Board shall duly accept and disclose the relevant circumstances in a timely manner.

A 69 Meetings of the Board shall be presided over by the Chairman. In the event that the Chairman is unable to perform such duties, he/she shall designate the vice Chairman or a director to chair the meetings on his/her behalf. In the event that the Chairman neglects his/her duties for no reason, or does not designate any specific personnel to act on his/her behalf, a director, proposed by the vice Chairman or jointly by more than half of the directors, shall be responsible for presiding over the meetings.

A 70 Meetings of the Board shall be held only if more than five directors are present. Each director shall have one vote in respect of each resolution of the Board. Resolutions of the Board must be passed by more than half of all directors (more than five directors). Matters relating to external guarantee to be considered by the Board under the authority granted by the general meeting shall be passed by two-thirds of all directors (more than six directors).

A 71 Directors shall attend Board meetings in person. If a director is unable to attend a Board meeting due to whatever reasons, he/she may appoint another director in writing to attend on his/her behalf. The form of entrustment shall state the name of the proxy, the matters to be entrusted, scope of authorisation and validity period, and shall be signed or sealed by the appointer. The directors attending the meeting on other's behalf shall exercise his/her rights within the scope of authorisation. If a director does not attend a Board meeting, and fails to appoint a proxy to attend the meeting on his/her behalf, the director shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting right at that meeting.

An independent director can entrust another independent director to attend a Board meeting, subject to the condition that each meeting of the Board shall be attended by at least two independent directors.

A 72 Upon the convening of a Board meeting, the Chairman or the presider of the meeting shall first announce the topics, and arrange the discussion in accordance with the agenda of the meeting. The Chairman or the presider of the meeting is entitled to determine the discussion time of each topic, whether to stop the discussion, whether to move on to the next issue, etc. The Chairman or the presider of the meeting shall earnestly preside over the meeting, listen fully to the directors present at the meeting and ensure the efficiency of discussion and the rationality of decision-making.

A 73 In light of the agenda of the meeting, the Board may summon other persons relating to the subjects of the meeting to explain relevant situation or listen to relevant opinions. Attendees who are not a member of the Board shall not be involved in the discussion, or intervene the progress, voting or resolution of the meeting.

A 74 In principle, the Board will not review the topics or matters not stated in the notice of the meeting. Under special circumstances where new topics or matters need to be added to the agenda, such topics or matters may only be considered and resolved upon approval by more than two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting. The Chairman or the presider of the meeting may employ the voting procedures to vote on the addition of the new topics or matters, when necessary.

A 75 The Board shall conduct strict examinations on external investments, acquisition, disposal and mortgage of assets as well as external guarantees. The Board shall organise relevant experts and professionals to make assessments on material projects and then tender a submission to the general meeting for approval. Within a period of twelve consecutive months, the respective aggregate amount of external investments, acquisition, disposal and mortgage of assets as well as external guarantees shall not exceed 30% of the audited net asset value of the Company in the previous year.

A 76 All directors shall perform due diligence on and strictly control liability risk incurred from external guarantees, and shall bear joint liability for loss resulting from nonconforming or improper external guarantees. The aggregate amount of the external guarantees of the Company to be considered by the Board under the authority granted by the general meeting shall not exceed 50% of the latest audited net asset value of the Company.

A 77 The Board shall not, without prior approval of the general meeting, dispose of or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the expected value of the consideration for the proposed disposal and the value of the consideration for any disposal of fixed assets in the four months immediately preceding the proposed disposal exceeds

- (4) close family member(s) of the counterparty of a transaction or its direct or indirect controller (including their spouses, parents and parents-in-law, siblings and their spouses, children at the age of 18 or above and their spouses, siblings of spouses and parents-in-law of the children);
- (5) close family member(s) of the directors, supervisors and senior management of the counterparty of a transaction or its direct or indirect controller (including their spouses, parents and parents-in-law, siblings and their spouses, children at the age of 18 or above and their spouses, siblings of spouses and parents-in-law of the children);
- (6) person authenticated by the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange or the Company that his/her independent business judgment might be affected due to other reasons.

A 79 Where a director of the Company gives to the Board, before the Company's first consideration of the entering of any contract, transaction or arrangement, a general notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, he/she is interested in such contracts, transactions or arrangements which may subsequently be made by the Company, such director shall be deemed to have made a disclosure as required in the preceding articles of the Rules of Procedure.

A 80 The vote on Board resolutions shall be taken by way of registered poll. Each director shall have one vote.

A 81 As long as all directors can fully express their opinions, an extraordinary Board meeting may be held by way of communication (such as videophone, telephone conference and facsimile), and resolutions passed shall be signed by all participating directors and kept by the secretary of the Board.

A 82 After the formation of a Board resolution, the Board of the Company shall fulfill its information disclosure obligations as provided in the relevant national laws, administrative regulations and other regulatory documents.

A 83 Minutes shall be taken for decisions made on matters discussed at the meeting and directors attending the meeting, secretary of the Board and the person taking the minutes shall sign on the minutes. Directors attending the meeting shall have the right to request to record in the minutes details of the statements made by them at the meeting. The minutes of board meetings shall be kept by the secretary of the Board for a period of not less than ten (10) years.

A 84 The minutes of Board meetings shall include the following:

- (1) date and venue of the meeting and the name of the convenor;
- (2) names of the attending directors and names of those appointed by others to attend the Board meeting;
- (3) agenda of the meeting;

- (4) main points of the statements of directors;
- (5) the method and results of voting for each resolution (the voting results shall clearly state the number of votes for or against the resolution or abstention).

Any matter to be submitted to the general meeting of the Company for consideration shall be separately stated.

A 85 Directors shall sign on Board resolutions and shall be accountable for the Board resolutions. If a Board resolution violates the laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association thus causing losses to the Company, the directors participating in the resolutions shall be liable to compensate the Company for the losses. However, if it is verified that a director had stated his/her objection when voting and the same was recorded in the minutes, such director may be exempted from such liability.

A 86 Directors attending the meeting shall duly keep the meeting documents, and shall observe their duty and obligation in keeping confidentiality of the meeting documents and content considered on the meeting before the relevant resolution of such meeting is officially disclosed to the public.

CHAPTER SUPPLEMENTAR PRO ISIONS

A 87 All references to “over” and “expiry” in the Rules of Procedure shall be inclusive of the stated figure; all references to “not more than”, “other than”, “lower than”, “more than” and “exceed” shall be exclusive of the stated figure; while a reference to “include” means including but not limited to relevant matters or issues stated.

A 88 The matters not covered in the Rules of Procedure shall be implemented in accordance with the relevant national laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents and the Articles of Association.

A 89 When the Rules of Procedure need to be revised in light of actual changes in circumstances, the revised drafts shall be proposed by the Board and submitted to the Board for approval and to the general meeting for approval before implementation.

A 90 The Rules of Procedure come into effect after approval by the general meeting.

A 91 The Rules of Procedure shall be interpreted by the Board of the Company.
